

Bernard Sperry

Bernard Sperry is the son of François Sperry (born in 1912 - died in 1999), french architect, born in Mulhouse a large industrial family.

Bernard and his father have created the marina of Port-Grimaud in place of a swamp.

Bernard Sperry and his father have worked together on many projects.

In France:

lakeside city of Port-Grimaud in the Bay of Saint-Tropez
district of Port-Cergy in Cergy-Pontoise, construction of the tower of Amiens directed by Auguste Perret,
tour of Europe in Mulhouse,
Heart of the City of Le Plessis-Robinson

In the World:

district of Puerto Escondido in Mexico
district of Port-Freedom in the Bay of New York
district of Porto Cervo in Sardinia
district of Port Louis in LA, Bendinat village in Palma de Majorca (Balearic Islands)

Today Bernard Sperry, world-renowned architect, is working on a project in Dubai. It is in charge of developing the marina backed the Burj Al Arab luxury hotel

We will honour of presiding over the jury of our architectural competition and will be among us on October 14, 2008.

